

WORLD'S FRIENDS OF ANIMALS MEET

Many Countries Represented in Congress Intended to Wipe out Vivisection.

Vivisection in all its phases will be discussed at the sessions of the first international anti-vivisection and animal protection congress ever held in the United States, which meets in this city December 5.

Delegates from all parts of Europe and from practically every State in the Union, will be present. The convention, which will last four days, will be notable for its open discussion of vivisection, it being the purpose of its sponsors to have an absolutely open forum on the subject.

From hundreds of letters written to Mrs. Clinton Pinckney Farrell, of New York, secretary of the international anti-vivisection organization, not more than ten, she says, have favored unrestricted vivisection.

High dignitaries of the various churches, Senators, governors, Congressmen, members of parliament, members of foreign nobility, labor leaders, socialists, professors, army and navy officers, journalists, lawyers, and authors, all will be represented at the coming congress.

Among the numerous foreign vice presidents who will not attend, but who have prepared papers to be read, are the Duchess of Somerset, the Marchioness of Dornal, the Princess Melba, president of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, of Naples; the Countess Ruth, president of the Swedish Ladies Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Stockholm; Lord Ernest Hamilton, Sir George Kekewich, K. C. B.; George Greenwood, member of parliament; Charles Beauquier, member of the chamber of deputies, Maurice Barres, member of the French Academy; Lieutenant Colonel Mehn, Copenhagen; Herr Magnus Schwann, honorary secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Berlin; Leon van Pelt, manager of the Royal Veterinary Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals; Fru Constance Silber, founder of Finnish societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals, Helsinki; Dr. H. J. H. Thomsen, C. C. B.; Dr. Henri Boucher, president of the International Society for the Prevention of Vivisection; Dr. Foveau de Courmelles, president of the French Society Opposed to Vivisection; Dr. L. J. Quide, member of the Bavarian parliament; Dr. Albert Robin, commander of the Legion of Honor, and Dr. S. de Silva, president of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Santos.

The first day of the congress will be devoted to a reception at the Raleigh hotel, followed by a moving picture exhibit bearing on the work of the organization.

The second day's session will be opened by the Rev. Alfred Harding, D. D., addresses will be made by Edward H. Clement, president of the congress; William Jennings Bryan, Mrs. Catherine Earle White, on the history of the anti-vivisection movement; the Rev. C. Ernest Smith; Ernest Thompson Seton, president of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals; Francis H. Rowley, president of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, on slaughter house reform; Mrs. James Speyer, president of the New York Women's League; Frederick P. Bellamy, on anti-cruelty societies as against cruelty; Miss Lind-Ar-Hageby, on the constructive side of the anti-vivisection movement; Hamilton Plisk Bigger, A. M., M. D., LL. D., honorary president of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, on the restriction of vivisection; and Miss Janet Elchard, on regulation of vivisection.

Wednesday's session will be opened by Mr. William T. Russell, of St. Patrick's Church, Washington, addresses will be made by the Rev. Norman V. P. Lewis, on the grace of kindness; Henry C. Merwin, president of the Workhorse Relief Association, on humane and sanitary stabling; Senator Henry L. Myers; Dr. C. W. Dulles, of Philadelphia, on ill-effects of the existing evidence of experiments on human beings; Jefferson Seligman, on kindness to animals; Senator Jacob H. Gallinger; Dr. Albert Leffingwell, on the future of vivisection; Dr. Richard Owen, president of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, on wish-wash sentimentality, sanity, and common-sense, cruelty and brutality with reference to animals; Frank E. Hildard, Boston University Medical School, on dangers of serum therapy.

Wide Discussion Tomorrow.

Thursday's session will be opened by the Rev. Earl Cranston, bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, Washington, and addresses will be made by Porter F. Cope, on vaccination in relation to animal and human experimentation; Mrs. Mary S. Lovell, on humane education; Prof. J. Howard Moore, on discovering how Mrs. Lind-Ar-Hageby, on animal protection as against the evolution of morals; Henry E. Lanus, of Pennsylvania, on the danger of experiments on human beings; Mrs. M. L. Sharpe, president of the Millennium Guild, Boston, on vivisection outside of medical research; Miss Katherine S. Nicholson, on the source of supply for vivisection laboratories; and Prof. Augustus Levanzini, A. B., Ph. D., on the medicine of the future, dietetics.

Among the prominent persons connected with the work are Mrs. John H. Henderson, Mrs. Hammond Kennedy, of Washington; Miss Clara Emory, secretary of the National Society for the Humane Regulation of Vivisection; Mrs. Walston H. Brown, president of the Child Welfare League, New York; Mrs. Enelle R. Nelson, president of the New York Theosophical Society; Mrs. George S. Lovell, corresponding secretary of the Women's Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals; Mrs. Maud R. Ingersoll Probasco, corresponding secretary of the Vivisection Investigation League; Mrs. Huntington Smith, president of the Animal Rescue League, Boston; Mrs. J. L. C. Henderson, secretary New England Anti-Vivisection Society, Boston; Miss Katharine S. Nelson, treasurer, executive committee American Anti-Vivisection Society.

SOAP ON YOUR HAIR CAUSES DANDRUFF; SCALP GETS DRY, THEN HAIR FALLS OUT

Girls! Get a 25-cent bottle and try a "Danderine" Hair Cleanse.

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy, and abundant and possess an incomparable softness and luster.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong, and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it—Advt.
